Learn More About Pink Zkittlez

Brought to us from Tiki Madman Genetics, this cultivar will not disappoint. It is a cross of Trop Cherry (Tropicana x Cherry Cookies) and Zkittlez Bomb (Forbidden Zkittlez x Sunset Sherbert), making it a stunner in both looks and taste.

While breaking down this lineage, we discover the following; Trop Cherry is a cross between Tropicana Cookies and Cherry Cookies which as a result becomes a Sativa dominant strain with bright purple/green buds and orange hairs. Even for buds on the smaller side, they pack some smell. A blend of tangerines and sour cherries with some earthy gas will fill your nose.

The Zkittlez Bomb is a cross between Forbidden Zkittlez and Sunset Sherbert. An indica dominant strain with maroon/purple buds and orange hairs. An aroma of sweet fruit and earthy gas will leave you thinking of candy.

Crossing Trop Cherry and Zkittlez Bomb, to create Pink Zkittlez, you can see how appropriate the name Madman is. Pink Zkittlez is a hybrid strain that will always leave you wanting more. From the maroon/bright purple buds, to the cherry, earthy gas aroma.

This cultivar can satisfy your sweet tooth without having to worry about the dentist.
